

Bamford, Laurence James ('Laurie')

(1947-2005)

Photo thanks to DNW

Biographical and Other Notes

Born and grew up in Croydon, and collecting pennies from a very young age. His first job as a computer programmer for Prudential Insurance was supplemented by dealing in the evenings and at weekends. Eight and a half years later he became a full-time dealer and in 1983 teamed up with Graeme and Linda Monk and the late John Hooper to establish Croydon Coin Auctions. He continued to collect and upgrade his bun penny collection. Outstanding collection sold in 204 lots at DNW 20 June 2006.

Sources and References

https://www.dnw.co.uk/auction-archive/special-collections/foreword.php?specialcollection_id=162