Biographical and Other Notes

Long-time member of the Havering Numismatic Society and regular attendee at the annual Token Congress for over 25 years. Started collecting Victorian bun pennies as a boy, but quickly moved onto tokens, especially those issued by traders at the London markets, forming one of the largest collections. Published a short booklet on the history and tokens of Columbia Market in 1993. Having worked on the telephone side of the GPO he also collected phone cards and tokens of the world.
