Notes

I have had a lifelong interest in numismatics, via my father who had been a schoolboy client of Baldwin's during the second world war. A junior coin cataloguer at Glendining's from 1990, first employee of Baldwin's Auctions Ltd in 1994. I joined the BNS in 1990 and BAMS in 1995. In 2005 I began trading on my own account, emphasis on commemorative medals, joining the BNTA in 2006. Occasional articles appear in Coin News, The Historical Medal Journal and elsewhere. In 2017 I graced BBC TV daytime airwaves with a brief appearance on Put Your Money Where Your Mouth Is but so far this has not led to a lucrative career in the media. Ultimately I hope to produce a reference work on Welsh-language commemorative medals.
