

Magnay, David Edgar

(1942-2009)

Photo thanks to TCSB

Biographical and Other Notes

Spent his early years in the UK and Singapore. Educated in Northumberland and aged 18 joined Lloyd's Bank in Southampton. In 1960 his interests changed from stamps to coins. He moved all over the country with his job, rising to senior manager of the Liverpool City centre branch and senior commercial manager in Cardiff, living in Cowbridge. On being made redundant in the late 80s he founded The Business Mortgage Company Ltd. from which he retired in 1998. He spent 37 years in the Territorial Army. He specialized in toy coins and model money, Victorian pattern pennies (DNW February 1999) and helped D. Roger's with his book Toy Coins (1990) and D. Young and J.G. Scott's book on imitation spade guineas. Regular at Token Congress and many articles published.

Sources and References

P. Preston-Morley. Obit. TCSB v9n9 December 2009, pp324-5.
HEM Encyclopædia 2 – Numismatic.
HEM Encyclopædia 3 – Books.