

Satirical print by B.W. Crombie– Modern Athenians.
Blood in brown coat © BM 1932,0330.95

Biographical and Other Notes

Bindon Blood of Rockforest House was a landlord, magistrate and a Deputy Lieutenant for County Clare, Ireland. Significant landowner at Ennis, Co. Clare. Known by the nickname “The Vampire”. Collection of Roman, Bactrian, Oriental, English patterns and proofs, early British, English and Scottish gold coins was sold with other collections at Sotheby’s 11-12 August 1856.

Sources and References

HEM Encyclopædia 1 – Auction.
HEM Encyclopædia 4 – Biographical.