Biographical and Other Notes

Born in Grimsby and educated and employed locally before training for the ministry at Paton Congregational College in Tollerton, Nottinghamshire. He served as minister in several churches and finally in Boston, Lincolnshire, where he retired. He first took an interest in numismatics in the late 1930s by studying the history of religion through the evidence of ancient coins. His collection was formed mostly in the 1940s. His collection was sold in 332 lots at DNW 13 September 2017.
