

Biographical and Other Notes

Wyatt was an amateur geologist and archaeologist and was also the founder and editor of the Bedford Times newspaper. During an excavation in 1854 he found the first recorded specimen of the token issued by Phillip Nicholles.

He corresponded with William Boyne on the Bedfordshire section of Boyne's catalogue.

Sources and References

J. Gaunt (edited and expanded by G. Oddie). Bedfordshire Seventeenth Century Tokens. Galata, 2011.