During 1978, the Royal Mint produced some 1,870 million coins at the factory in Llantrisant. It arranged for the striking of 676 million coins by subcontractors working under Royal Mint supervision. Of the total production of over 2,500 million coins, over 50% were struck on behalf of overseas governments.

Its 48 overseas customers included Afghanistan, Algeria, Belize, Botswana, Cayman Islands, Cyprus, Ecuador, Falkland Islands, Ghana, Guernsey, Iceland, Jordan, Kenya, Libya, Malta, Mauritius, Nepal, Oman, Spain, Swaziland, United Arab Republic and Zambia.

It minted coins for a number of countries participating in the Wildlife scheme. It produced 84,736 medals and 16 different seals during the year.

Medal to commemorate the 75th anniversary of the British Numismatic Society

The Royal Mint is casting a medal to commemorate the 75th anniversary of the founding of the British Numismatic Society on 30th November 1903. The medal is illustrated on the frontispiece of this Journal. It is designed by Mr. Robert Elderton, Modeller at the Royal Mint, and depicts, on the obverse, an Alfred London monogram penny together with the pile and trussel of a medieval coinage die set. The reverse carries a commemorative inscription.

The medal has a diameter of 3 inches, and is available in bronze at £17.50 and in silver at £40. Prices include postage, packing and VAT. To order, or to obtain further information, please write to The Royal Mint Numismatic Bureau, P.O. Box 9, Llantrisant, Pontyclun, Mid Glamorgan, CF7 8YT.
