EDITORIAL NOTE

To assist contributors in the preparation of typescripts for submission to the Journal, and also with the marking up of proofs, Council has agreed to adopt, as far as possible, the conventions set out in the Style Book of the Modern Humanities Research Association. Copies are available from the Editor.

For ease of reference, each Journal will in future carry a list of the standard abbreviations used, without explanation, in its text and notes.

THE BRITISH NUMISMATIC SOCIETY

The Society was founded in 1904, and is a registered charity (No.275906). The objects of the Society are:

The encouragement and promotion of numismatic science, particularly through the study of the coins, medals and tokens of the peoples of the British Isles and Commonwealth and the United States of America, and of such territories as may at any time be or have been subject to their jurisdiction.

Membership is open to all persons and to appropriate institutions. Enquiries about membership should be made of the Secretary:

W.Slayter, Esq.
63 West Way
Edgware
Middlesex, HA8 9LA

Meetings are held on the fourth Tuesday of each month from January to June and September to November, at the Warburg Institute, 6 pm. Other meetings may be arranged from time to time. Offers of papers to be read at meetings should be sent to the Director:

G.P.Dyer, Esq., BSc.
The Royal Mint
Llantrisant
Mid Glamorgan, CF7 8YT

The British Numismatic Journal is published annually, and distributed without charge to all members. Persons, whether members or not, wishing to submit an article or short note for publication should write to the Editor:

Dr C.E.Challis
School of History
University of Leeds
Leeds, LS2 9JT

The Society's library is housed at the Warburg Institute. Members may use the library on presentation of their signed membership card. Books can be sent to members by post on request to the Librarian. Gifts for the library, and books for review, should be sent to the Librarian:

H.E.Pagan, Esq., MA.
c/o The Warburg Institute
