The British Numismatic Society was founded in 1903, and is a registered charity (No. 275906). The object of the Society is:

the encouragement and promotion of numismatic science, particularly through the study of the coins, medals and tokens of the peoples of the British Isles and Commonwealth and the United States of America, and of such territories as may at any time be or have been subject to their jurisdiction.

Membership is open to all persons and to appropriate institutions. Enquiries about membership should be made to the Membership Secretary:

C.R.S. Farthing, Esq. c/o The Warburg Institute Woburn Square London WC1H 0AB

Meetings are held at 6 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday of each month from January to June and September to November at the Warburg Institute. Other meetings may be arranged from time to time. Offers of papers to be read at meetings should be sent to the Director:

Dr K. Clancy The Royal Mint Llantrisant, Pontyclun Mid Glamorgan CF72 8YT

The British Numismatic Journal is published annually, and distributed without charge to all members. Persons, whether members or not, wishing to submit an article or short note for publication should write to the Editors:

c/o Dr D.J. Symons Birmingham Museum and Art Gallery Chamberlain Square Birmingham B3 3DH

To assist contributors in the preparation of typescripts for submission to the Journal, and also with the marking up of proofs, Council has agreed to adopt, as far as possible, the conventions set out in the Style Book of the Modern Humanities Research Association (fifth edition, 1996).

The Society's library is housed at the Warburg Institute. Members may use the library on presentation of their signed membership card. Books can be sent to members by post on request to the Librarian. Gifts for the library, and books for review, should be sent to the Librarian:

A.J. Holmes, Esq. c/o The Warburg Institute Woburn Square London WC1H 0AB

Annual subscriptions, currently £32 (reduced subscription for those under 21 or in full time education £15), are due on 1 January each year, and should be sent without request to the Treasurer:

P.H. Mernick, Esq. 42 Campbell Road London E3 4DT
