THE BRITISH NUMISMATIC SOCIETY

The Society was founded in 1903, and is a registered charity (No. 275906). The object of the Society is the encouragement and promotion of numismatic science, particularly through the study of the coins, medals and tokens of the peoples of the British Isles and Commonwealth and the United States of America, and of such territories as may at any time be or have been subject to their jurisdiction.

Membership is open to all persons and to appropriate institutions. Details of membership and an application form can be found on the Society's website: www.britnumsoc.org Further enquiries about membership should be made to the Membership Secretary:

Philip Skingley, Esq.
The British Numismatic Society
c/o The Warburg Institute
Woburn Square
London WC1H 0AB

Meetings are held at 6 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday of each month from January to June and September to November at the Warburg Institute or Spink & Son. Other meetings may be arranged from time to time. Offers of papers to be read at meetings should be sent to the Director:

I. Leins, Esq.
Department of Coins and Medals
The British Museum
Great Russell Street,
London WC1B 3DG

The British Numismatic Journal, which is fully peer-reviewed, is published annually and distributed without charge to all members. Back numbers of the Journal have been digitized and are freely available online on the Society’s website (www.britnumsoc.org). Persons, whether members or not, wishing to submit an article or short note for publication should write to the Editor:

Dr M. Allen
Department of Coins and Medals
Fitzwilliam Museum
Trumpington Street
Cambridge CB2 1RB

To assist contributors in the preparation of typescripts for submission to the Journal, and also with the marking up of proofs, a set of Notes for the Guidance of Contributors may be downloaded from the Society’s website (www.britnumsoc.org) or obtained from the Editor. The Journal is working towards becoming Green Open Access compliant. The final text of articles may be deposited in an online repository after an embargo period of 36 months, subject to the signing of a CC-BY-NC-ND license. Authors wishing to deposit their articles should contact the Editors.

The Society’s library is housed at the Warburg Institute. Members may use the library on presentation of their signed membership card. Books can be sent to members by post on request to the Librarian. Gifts for the library, and books for review, should be sent to the Librarian:

R.H. Thompson, Esq.
The British Numismatic Society
c/o The Warburg Institute
Woburn Square
London WC1H 0AB

Annual subscriptions, currently £32 (reduced subscription for those under 21 or in full time education £15), are due on 1 January each year, and should be sent without request to the Treasurer:

P.H. Mernick, Esq.
42 Campbell Road
London E3 4DT

Annual Accounts and Annual Reports of the Trustees of the British Numismatic Society are published on the Society’s website: www.britnumsoc.org.
