

Humphry, Isabella Lucy (née Stokes)

(1861-1934)

L. Humphrey: Images thanks to Mill Road Cemetery Cambridge

G.G. Stokes: Images thanks to wiki

Biographical and Other Notes

In 1915, Isabella Lucy Humphry (née Stokes 1861-1934, m.1889), wife of Dr Laurence Humphry (1856–1920), of Trinity College, along with her brother Sir Arthur Stokes, gave to the Museum a collection of seventy-six Roman, medieval and modern European coins, which may once have belonged to their father, Prof. Sir George Gabriel Stokes (1819–1903), Master of Pembroke College and one of the most outstanding mathematicians of the 19th C.

Sources and References

RN – MEC8.

<https://millroadcemetery.org.uk/humphry-laurence/>

<http://millroadcemetery.org.uk/stokes-george-gabriel/>