Biographical and Other Notes

Born in Cheshire, he had a lifelong interest in airplanes and cycling. His first job was in the National Provincial Bank in various branches around Lancashire and Cheshire. He left the bank in 1969 to set up the Coin Centre in Hazel Grove. This eventually became A.F. Brock & Co which survived until 2014 when ill health caused his retirement. In the 70s and early 80s he organized the BCFs (British Coin Fairs) numismatic shows around the country.
