

Harrison, Alan

(1933-2010)

Photo thanks to DNW

Biographical and Other Notes

Born in Winterton, Lincolnshire to a farming family. As a young man, finding a Roman villa on his parents' land started a lifelong interest in archaeology and recording finds from ploughed fields. He collected firstly Roman and Celtic and later Greek coins. Most of his finds were he donated to the North Lincolnshire Museum in Scunthorpe his collection of fine Greek coins was sold by DNW in 62 lots on 22 June 2011.

Sources and References

https://www.dnw.co.uk/auction-archive/special-collections/foreword.php?specialcollection_id=177