

Photo thanks to DNW

Biographical and Other Notes

Born in Clevedon, Somerset. Joined the GPO in his 20s as an installer of telegraph poles, working upwards to become an area manager for British Telecom, retiring in 1995. He lived at Waterlooville, Hampshire, collected widely and was well known at most numismatic societies along the south coast of England.

His collections were sold in two parts by DNW: British Banknotes 1 October 2009 And English coins 10 December 2009.

Sources and References

https://www.dnw.co.uk/auction-archive/special-collections/foreword.php?specialcollection_id=172

P. Preston Morley. Obit. Coin News, August 2009, p12.