

Hennem, Brian Walter

(1937-2008)

Photo thanks to DNW

Biographical and Other Notes

Brian was a civil servant who worked in the library service and the Department of Health & Social Security and, after taking early retirement, became a volunteer driver for the ambulance car service. He started collecting Hampshire paranumismatica in the early 1980s, was a regular attendee at Token Congress and had taken over a small postal business "Tokens for Sale" from the late Ralph Hayes in 2000. Hampshire paranumismatica collection and research went to Michael Knight. Remaining stock sold through DNW in 21 lots 7 October 2009.

Sources and References

https://www.dnw.co.uk/auction-archive/special-collections/foreword.php?specialcollection_id=155