Biographical and Other Notes

Interest in coins started with finding and collecting Victorian copper coins from circulation in the late 1950s. Began professional career at B.A. Seaby Ltd in 1968. Handled British and Irish silver and copper coins and tokens and, briefly, ancients. Finally bought and sold world coins but including all tokens. After redundancy in 1986 became an independent numismatic dealer, cataloguer and consultant. A paid part-time academic opportunity arose in 1990 to join Robert Thompson as co-author for the final six Sylloge volumes covering the Norweb family collection of British Isles tokens 1575 to 1750, published 1992 to 2012. Best known for his priced catalogue of 17th century tokens of the British Isles (1986, reprinted 2004); has also written articles for SCMB, SNC, TCSB and minor pieces for the BNS Journal.
