

Macmillan, John

(1836-1921)

Biographical and Other Notes

Born in Wincanton, Somerset, appears as a stationer in Edgbaston, Birmingham in the 1861 census. Later censuses have him as a commercial traveller for a paper mill. He left £1480 9s 11d in his will in 1921.

With W.J. Davis he financed the New Centenary tokens, issued by subscription at 2s. each and which helped publicise Davis' The Token Coinage of Warwickshire (Birmingham, 1895), which was being compiled at the time the tokens made their appearance. Appears in Davis' gallery of contemporary collectors.
