

McDonald, David

(1950-2019)

Photo thanks to DNW

Biographical and Other Notes

From Westminster, Maryland, began his interest in coins in 1959, initially Canada, Newfoundland and the USA and later British-related material, specifically Scottish, Irish and tokens. He was a pharmaceutical salesman for 32 years, but from 1979 was a part-time dealer in coins, tokens, maps and documents.

Collections of quality tokens plus several hundred in large groups, sold in 117 lots at DNW 3 October 2019.

Sources and References

https://www.dnw.co.uk/auction-archive/special-collections/foreword.php?specialcollection_id=889