

Faulkner, William James

(1851-1939)

Biographical and Other Notes

Faulkner spent his whole life in Staffordshire. Born in Leek, he followed his father into the locally flourishing silk trade, initially as a commercial clerk and then a commercial traveller for silk manufacturers. He died in Endon, Staffs.

Extensive collection of 17th C tokens and books sold Glendining 21-3 May 1940.

Sources and References

HEM Encyclopædia 1 – Auction.