

Sazama, James Francis ('Jim')

(1946-2011)

Photo thanks to DNW

Biographical and Other Notes

Born in San Francisco, served in the Vietnam war and, after demobilisation opened the Wooden Nickel Coin Shop in Los Altos, California, in 1974. In 1982 his family relocated to North Carolina and with his brother he established the American Nursery & Landscaping Co in Pinehurst. He wrote articles for several US publications, was a member of several Societies and spoke about coins on local radio shows. He avidly collected British small denomination hammered coins. The 1,507 piece collection sold in 15 parts through DNW starting 26 September 2011 to 11 February 2015.

Contributors to British Numismatics

Sources and References

https://www.dnw.co.uk/auction-archive/special-collections/foreword.php?specialcollection_id=111

28 June 2021

