CAMBRIDGE

A New History of the Royal Mint

Edited by C. E. CHALLIS

A major new study of the development of English minting from its origins to the production techniques of today. The five internationally respected contributors draw deeply on primary sources to assess twelve centuries of English minting and their book is designed to be of value to both the specialist and the general reader.

Contributors: Ian Stewart, N. J. Mayhew, C. E. Challis, G. P. Dyer and P. P. Gaspar.
